

The Visionary developed into The Non-Conformist Architect

Self-Analysis of How-I-Got-Here and Where-I-Want-To-Go Flow Chart (Nov 2022): assessment of INTP on point

- Put effort into making relationships meaningful
- Blunt and Honest; Independent and Confident; Flexible and adapt to emotional and physical environments
- Tolerant of other people but prefer private solitude to social engagements
- Not afraid of pointing out inconsistency/errors of someone's logic
- Seek relationships offering intellectual stimulation and emotional support
- Prefer to outline a project plan and goal and let the team fill in the details - end result more important than how it gets done
- Jobs with too many distractions, such as meetings & social interactions, will stifle productivity and motivation
- Top Careers: The Arts: user experience designer/architect; Engineering: materials science; Technology: computer science; analyst
- Love solving challenging puzzles and achieving measurable results within a flexible environment that doesn't involve a lot of bureaucratic red tape
- Fear of failure - become self-conscious & start second-guessing myself and wasting precious time deciding; take too much time to gather information and decide
